

- Please turn your chair so you have your back to your partner

- One of you will have a source – one of you will recreate the source – with the second one describing it!

What can you infer from the source about Farming in 1920s America?

Create the perfect answer!

Mark Scheme

And writing frame

Part (a), 3 marks

Level	What the examiners are looking for	Marks
1	Basic information from the source	1
2	One or more inferences supported with basic detail	2
3	One or more inferences supported with good detail.	3

‘The source suggests.....’

‘I can infer this because it shows.....’

Smack the examiner in the face!

Writing frame

Part (b), 7 marks

- Source C supports the evidence of Source B about.....
- Source C suggests that
- Source B supports this when it says.....
- However, both sources disagree, as Source C suggests that..... as it says.....
- In contrast, Source B says.....
- In conclusion Source C Strongly supports / offers some support / offers little support/ offers no support to source B. This is because.....

Smack the examiner in the face!

Mark scheme

Part (b), 7 marks

Level	What the examiners are looking for	Marks
1	Simple statement that identify similarity/ difference at face value	1-2
2	Developed statement which identify similarities OR differences	3-4
3	Developed statements identifying support AND challenge and extent of support. Cross referencing for support and challenge . 5-6 marks Overall evaluation of extent. 7 marks

Smack the examiner in the face!

